Questions... about painting

Is painting still vital, or is it a dead language?
We asked the following questions of several young painters working today

1. What is painting?
2. What is your favorite color?
3. Which artist or painter has influenced you?
4. Is there a work of art you would like to have in your home next to your own work?
5. What is the best way to exhibit a painting?
6. What are the limits of painting?
7. How do you start a work — do you have any rituals?
8. Is there a future for painting or you are one of the last survivors?
9. If you were about to be reborn, what would you like to be — still a painter?
10. Do you think painting is underappreciated today?

Valerie Snobeck

1. A unit of measure.
2. CMYK 0, 0, 0, 0.
3. Gilles Deleuze.
4. Le Consortium, Dijon, France, June 7 - June 27, 1991.
5. Within limits.
6. As one describes them.
7. I wake up, drink a glass of water, use the toilet, wash my face, brush my teeth, put on clothes, make coffee.
8. The Oxford English Dictionary publishes four updates a year. The next update will be added to the dictionary in June 2013.
9. I would still let you call me that.
10. No.
